

Basic Module Children's Rights

Introduction to Children's Rights

This module provides basic information and material that summarizes the topic of children's rights. It also contains a number of ideas and suggestions on how to incorporate the topic of children's rights into classrooms or workshops. Here is a brief overview of the content and material in this module:

- Helpful worksheets that give children and adolescents an introduction to the topic of children's rights: How do children's rights come into being? What are the basic rights? The worksheets also contain different discussion topics.
- Descriptions of different ideas and approaches to introducing the topic of children's rights, as well as suggestions on how the worksheets can be used in educational work.
- A photo series on the basic children's rights, which provides an image-oriented approach to introducing or expanding on the topic. The series was created by young people from various FLG schools.
- All partners in the FLG network have kept short reports on assessments of the current situation of children's rights in their countries.
- Further background information on children's rights is provided at the end.

Learning goals

- To provide basic information on children's rights
- To promote a critical analysis of children's rights
- To explore the current situation of children's rights in one's own country, but also in other countries and contexts
